13. The Association may levy a fine against any Unit Owner for violating the Condominium Declaration, Articles of Incorporation for the Association, Bylaws of the Association or any Rules and Regulations adopted by the Association, including any amendments to those documents (collectively "Condominiums Documents"). The procedure for levying fines shall be as follows:

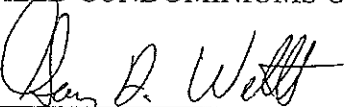

- (A) Demand. Upon the complaint of any two Unit Owners or upon the complaint of any two Directors of the Association outlining an alleged violation of the Condominium Documents, an officer of the Association shall give the alleged violator written demand to cease and desist any alleged violation. The written demand shall specify (1) the alleged violation; (2) the action required to abate the violation; and (3a) if the violation is a continuing one, a time period not less than seven days during which the violation may be abated without further sanction; or (3b) if the violation is not a continuing one, a statement that any further violation of the same nature may result in the imposition of a fine after notice and a hearing.
- (B) Notice. Within 12 months of such demand, if the violation continues past the period stated in the demand for abatement without penalty, or if the same violation subsequently occurs, the Board shall serve the violator with written notice of a hearing to be held by the Board. The notice shall be served via U.S. Mail, regular delivery or by personal service. The notice shall contain the nature of the alleged violation, the time and place of the hearing, which shall be not less than seven days from the giving of the notice, an invitation to attend the hearing and produce any statement, evidence, and witnesses on his or her behalf, and the proposed fine to be imposed.
- (C) Hearing. The hearing shall be held in executive session pursuant to the notice affording the violator a reasonable opportunity to be heard. Prior to the effectiveness of any fine, proof of notice and the invitation to be heard shall be placed in the minutes of the meeting. Such proof shall be deemed adequate if a copy of the notice together with a statement of the date and manner of delivery is entered by the officer or Director who delivered such notice. The notice requirement shall be deemed satisfied if a violator appears at the meeting. The minutes of the meeting shall contain a statement of the results of the hearing and the sanction imposed, if any. The violator shall have the right to present evidence at the hearing (the formal rules of evidence shall not apply to the hearing) and to be represented by counsel at his or her own expense.
- (D) Amount of Fine. The Board of Directors of the Association shall be authorized to levy fines between $20 and $100 the first time a fine is levied against a Unit Owner, unless the violation involves the police or a threat to the safety of another person, in which case the Association shall be authorized to levy a fine of up to and including $500. The Association shall be authorized to levy fines of up to and including $500 for subsequent violations of the Condominium Documents made by the same violator.
- (E) Payment and Lien. The violator shall have 30 days from the date notice of the fine is mailed or delivered to the violator to pay the full amount of the fine. Any unpaid amount due from the Unit Owner constitutes a lien against the Owner's Condominium Unit pursuant to Section 8.6 of the Association's Bylaws. Upon levying the fine or at any time thereafter, the Association may record in the Johnson County Recorder's Office, a Notice of Lien Claim, notifying the public of the amount of the fine due from the Unit Owner.
